

There's A Wizard In Your Head!

What does it mean
and how did it get there?

Ed Underwood,
The Cinemagician,

is an author, historian, comedian and of course, magician.

He wants to show with you how the influence of magicians on the early days of cinema has shaped your modern world.

Sharing provocative insights and historical artifacts, he will amuse, amaze and inspire you with a fresh awareness of this magical world around us.

His humor, magic and wisdom will help you learn a few tricks for better living! Ed's new book "There's A Wizard In Your Head" has just been released.

"A brilliant, thought-provoking program. Our group of educators want you back next year!"
-Thomas Pritchett, OK University Dean

"An absolute hit with our training seminar attendees. Thank you for a truly memorable encounter." - Libby James, Arkansas State University

"Can't thank you enough for such an unusual and interesting show and tell!"
- Dr. Paul Collins, Acts International Media